

1st WINTER COURSE IN FILM APPRECIATION, 2017
9th to 23rd December, 2017

A two-week full-time course in FILM APPRECIATION will be held at Pune from 9th to 23rd December, 2017, under the joint auspices of Film and Television Institute of India and National Film Archive of India. This is an intensive course designed differently from the regular Summer Film Appreciation Course.

This 2-week course in Film Appreciation intends to guide participants into a comprehensive, in depth, critical study of the philosophy and practice of Cinema, from the Maker's perspective. An introduction to the Indian/Asian aesthetics with reference to integrative consciousness, is a special feature. In addition, the participants may look forward to getting introduced to critical thinking through specific study of a Master; and a comparative study of the neighbouring practices allied to cinema.
